CHARGES PRISONS HEAD KIDNAPPED "KID THE DROPPER"

Lawyer Tells Court Client Was Illegally Taken From Jail to Clinton Prison.

(Special to The Evening World)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Dec. 1.—As the investigation into Sing Sing prison affairs by the Westchester County Grand Jury continues, charges and counter charges are being made by attorneys representing convicts that their clients are being intimidated or not given a chance to consult with counsel. Corporation Counsel Thomas F. Curran of Yonkers, who appeared for Nathan Kaplan, known as "Kid the Dropper," who is under indictment for a felony, charged before Justice Morschauser in the Supreme Court to-day that Kaplan had been kidnapped from the White Plains jail by Superintendent of Prisons Kelly and taken to Clinton Prison, thereby preventing him from consulting with his attorney.

Mr. Curran had Kaplan brought into the Supreme Court to-day on a writ of habeas corpus, alleging that the prisoner had been illegally transferred to Dannemora Prison. Mr. Curran asked that Kaplan be kept in the White Plains jail until the date of his trial, but Judge Morschauser dismissed the writ and directed that Kaplan be kept under guard in the White Plains jail until next Tuesday morning, so Mr. Curran will have a chance to confer with him.

Although Kaplan's trial was tentatively set for Dec. 13, Assistant District Attorney William J. Fallon announced that Kaplan will not be tried until next year, as he did not believe that the Grand Jury will complete its inquiries into the alleged crimes in the prison before the 13th instant. During the hearing to-day Kaplan jumped to his feet and asked permission to address the Judge. He said:

"I would like to be sent back to Sing Sing prison. I have been behaving myself and was one of the model prisoners in Sing Sing. I was taken away to Clinton prison so I could not talk to counsel, there is no justice in that for me, I am getting hounded in Clinton."

Mr. Fallon retorted: "Oh, yes, this model prisoner struck a man named Clifford, and over the head with a piece of pipe and he also knocked the teeth down the throat of a boy in prison."

Mr. Kaplan retorted: "Oh, yes, this model prisoner struck a man named Clifford, and over the head with a piece of pipe and he also knocked the teeth down the throat of a boy in prison."
